DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings dated 08 December 2003 are acceptable for examination purposes only.

Upon allowance, new formal drawings will be required.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. § 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The label and the step of providing a medical waste and/or conversion label are not described in the specification and have not previously been presented in any claims.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 7-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Romano (US 2003/0079803 A1).

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Regarding claims 7-14, Romano teaches a supply chain method comprising,

a) manufacturing a waste collection and disposal container (170) having an aseptic/sterile liquid therein hermetically sealed to a predetermined sterility assurance level said container (170) labeled so as to identify said aseptic/sterile liquid and an intended use related to and in connection with said liquid,

b) unsealing said container (170) for consumption of said aseptic/sterile liquid,

c) providing a medical waste material label for labeling said container (170) with said waste label to identify said container (170) in preparation for utility for waste collection by said waste collection container,

d) integrating said waste labeled container (170) into a waste collection system (170, 190),

e) collecting waste material in said waste material labeled container (170),

9 removing said waste labeled container (170) from said collection system (170, 190),

Art Unit: 3761

- g) resealing said waste labeled container (170) for transfer of said waste material,
- h) unsealing said waste labeled container (170) for emptying of said waste material from said labeled container (170),
- i) recycling said waste labeled container (170)(Abstract; ¶s 0004-0006 and 0012)(figures 17 and 18, below).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-6 and 17-20 are allowed.

Claims 15, 16, and 21-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a supply chain method as described in the rejection of claims 7-14, supra, adding the additional steps of sealing and unsealing a vacuum draw path.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
